DECADES OF GREATNESS

The original Master's Keep 17-year bourbon was a huge success, well received by both media and the bourbon community. AskMen touted it as "my favorite whiskey of the year," and Playboy magazine described it as "appropriately magnificent."

Master's Keep Decades, Eddie Russell's second release as Master Distiller, builds on that success. Celebrating 35 years with Wild Turkey, Eddie comes into his own – presenting a stunning bourbon made from a hand-selected lot of rare barrels. A blend of bourbons aged between 10 and 20 years, Master's Keep Decades represents the very best of bourbon making.

Barrels for this limited release were chosen from the center and upper floors of Wild Turkey's McBrayer Rickhouse. This harmonious mingling of liquid results in an extraordinarily enjoyable whiskey with the finesse and deep character of older bourbon, anchored by the bold, balanced, and vibrant backbone of younger bourbon. Standing tall at 104 proof, don't miss the extremely limited Master's Keep Decades – when it's gone, it's gone.

TASTING NOTES

With a bouquet of oak and caramel, this exquisitely crafted whiskey delivers beautifully intricate flavors of butterscotch, dried fruit, chocolate, and smoke, and lingers with a smooth, sweet, and spicy finish.
